

Mary Hill

Mary Hill is the former senior administrator, dean of students, professor and coach at West Texas A&M University, Canyon, Texas. As the senior administrator, she was responsible for developing and enforcing the underage drinking laws and policies. She served on the President's cabinet and became knowledgeable in all facets of higher education. She developed and facilitated Partners in Prevention Consortium (law enforcement, judicial affairs and health services) for the State of Texas to enforce underage drinking laws. Mary is presently an associate emeritus for the U.S. Department of Education, Higher Education Center for Alcohol and Drug Prevention, and board member of Texans Standing Tall. She is a national trainer in the areas of substance abuse, policy development, enforcement, violence prevention, coalition building, leadership, peer education and "holistic" wellness. She served as a consultant for three years to the National Panhellenic by developing a training program for sororities to reduce underage drinking. She developed and facilitated several training programs to reduce underage and high risk drinking for Greeks in Texas, Ohio, New Mexico and New York. She developed the Texas Sport Coalition that has been presented on 91 college and high school campuses in Texas. Mary's publications, research and presentations have been cited in State and National journals.
